

TERMS OF USE FOR SCREENING WAITING FOR "SUPERMAN"

America's Promise Alliance and the Show Me Campaign are pleased to provide the enclosed DVD copy of WAITING FOR "SUPERMAN." We encourage your participation in the nationwide effort to screen the film to spark conversation and action in communities across the country focusing on ensuring that all kids get a great education. By accepting this DVD, you are agreeing to the following Terms of Use:

- Screenings of any size in a private residence do not require any approval or incur any fees. There is no date by which screenings in private homes must be held, and we'd love to hear about them so please make sure to register your house party at <http://bit.ly/wfsparty>.
- Screenings taking place at a public location require a license, which Participant Media in partnership with the Show Me Campaign and America's Promise Alliance will obtain on behalf of your organization after you complete this form and return it to the below e-mail address or fax number. Please note that in order to comply with the License, your organization must meet the following requirements:
 - You MAY NOT screen the DVD at commercial theatrical venues or on a college or university campus
 - Permissible public screening venues include local community or civic centers, public recreation centers, chamber of commerce facilities or office complex meeting rooms
 - You MAY NOT screen the DVD publicly for any political purpose or to endorse any political candidate
 - Public screenings are subject to a 499 person limit
 - You MAY NOT charge fees, re-sell, or make copies of the WAITING FOR "SUPERMAN" DVD
 - Public screenings must take place NO LATER THAN April 30, 2011
 - When we have received and processed the information provided by you (BELOW), a License will be e-mailed to you by Swank Motion Pictures for your records.
 - You MAY NOT screen the DVD publicly without the Swank License.

Your organization is solely responsible for complying with the above requirements.
If you have any questions about the screening requirements contact Sarah Carragher at scarragher@participantmedia.com or (310)246-7732.

Email the below information to education@participantmedia.com or fax this form to (310)550-5106 to the attention of Carol Boehm
(Information must be received prior to screening)

Name: _____ Screening Location: _____
Organization: _____ Screening Date: _____
Email: _____ # of attendees: _____
Phone: _____